Please use the form on the next page to provide details about your book's materials, structure, binding, production, and any other details which can be included in the Exhibit Catalog description.

The three winning entries become the property of MBS. Some of the other entries will travel for one year in the Traveling Exhibit. MBS would like to place all entries in its archives at the Lilly Library. However, if you wish us to return your non-winning entry, please enclose a check for $5.00* to cover your book's return (if your entry is judged one of the three "Distinguished Books," we will return your $5) and please check this box: RETURN MY BOOK . If you do not wish us to return your non-winning entry, it will be placed in the MBS archives.

You will be deemed to have granted MBS a non-exclusive license to reproduce images of your book in the competition catalog and on the MBS website.

Complete both pages please!

* MBS is not responsible for damage to the books or for entries that may be lost in the mail. We do not insure the returned books due to cost. You may arrange and pay for special postal insurance based on the stated value of your book(s) by contacting the competition administrator, Neale M. Albert.
